Brunch and Klezmer at Jewish museum

The Museum of Jewish Montreal, Fletchers - Espace Culinaire, and KlezKanada are presenting a series of monthly klezmer brunches. Brunch is served between 10 and 3 with live music from 11 to 1pm at 4040 St. Laurent.

Each month will feature local musicians. The brunch menu will include shakshuka, salmon gravlax plate, za'atar breakfast sandwich, homemade granola bowl, and Fletchers' famous chocolate babka french toast. Seating is limited so arrive early to guarantee a spot. The series continues March 11, April 15, and May 13. Established in 2010 as a digital museum, and located since 2016 in the Plateau, the Museum of Jewish Montreal creates, explores and shares Montreal's Jewish experiences and culture through exhibitions, walking tours, community events, and online and mobile technology. Fletchers is a café and food space housed within the Museum of Jewish Montreal, exploring Montreal's Jewish food heritage.

KlezKanada was founded in 1996 to teach, nurture and present Jewish traditional arts and Jewish culture. Its goal is to foster Jewish cultural and artistic creativity worldwide.

Weekly lunches at SouthWest Mission

Starting in March, lunches that have been offered every second Wednesday will become a weekly event.

A Welcome Wednesday schedule featuring lunch and a mini-market remains the same, with a lighter lunch being added on the alternate Wednesdays. The first on March 7 was prepared by 10 to 15-year-olds attending a March Break cooking camp at the Mission. Donations are requested. The youth will prepare a British-style High Tea Friday, March 9. Tea, scones, and cucumber sandwiches will be offered at 4pm.

Donation requested. SouthWest Mission is at 631 Melrose, Verdun. southwestunited.net

Udistik Orchestra presents the Oud

The oud, great, great, great grandparent of the modern guitar, has a unique timbre and range, and its origins go back some 4,000 years to ancient Mesopotamia.

In tribute to the instrument, its survival and evolution, the five-member Udistik Orchestra has planned a special concert. The compositions are inspired by contemporary musical currents, both Middle Eastern and Western, as reflected in traditional melodies and the styles of today's oud masters. Anouar Brahem and Rabih Abou Khalil.

Three oud players form the core of this group. They include musical director Andrew Wells-Oberegger, Jean-Philippe Reny, and Anit Gosh, who doubles on violin.

The rhythm section is Mathieu Deschenaux on double bass and Éric Breton on percussion. The concert is scheduled for March 14, 8pm at Bourgie Hall, adjacent to the Montreal Museum of Fine Arts, Sherbrooke W. Tickets cost $20-39.
